WHEELING, JANUARY 16, 1889.

THE INTELLIGENCER DURING THE LEGISLATURE.

The session of the West Virginia Legislature, which will begin on the 9th instant, will be one of the most important and exciting ever held. The INTELLIGENCER will contain full telegraphic reports of each day's session, sent by a staff correspondent. The DAILY INTELLIGENCER will be mailed, postage paid, during the entire forty-five days of the session for one dollar, which amount must accompany the order.

Wheeling will to-night have her first chance in a long time to show her appreciation of really first class opera.

A DISPATCH from Washington says the Republican Senators are well pleased over the outcome of the caucus in Delaware. Mr. Higgins's nomination being the best in their opinion that could have been made.

The President has approved the act for the relief and civilization of the Chippewa Indians in the State of Minnesota. The Chippewa Indians in the State of Minnesota are quite as civilized as some white people—the Ohio White Caps, for instance.

The National, of Atlanta, Ga., has nearly a column editorial suggesting why General Harrison should appoint Mahone to his Cabinet, and in the same issue sagely remarks:

"If we can get the floor, we move that all persons cease for one week to give the President any advice upon the Southern question."

In one of the Eastern cities female barber shops were having quite a run, and pretty young barbers were at a premium. A good many husbands needed shaving every day, and their wives looked into the matter so severely that the business collapsed. Women don't seem disposed to aid each other.

Mr. Halstead's declaration that President Harrison may omit Ohio from the Cabinet list without hurting Ohio's feelings, suggests the Pittsburgh Dispatch, may be founded on the conviction that such a course would leave two or three foreign missions open to the ambition of Ohio editors.

The ice packers are naturally very much worried over the outlook for the crop this season. If one or two large consumers of ice in this city will unite they can put up an ice plant that will give them all they want, and a good interest on their investment. An artificial ice factory would be a good thing for the town.

The "West Virginia" has been at work again. Here is an item going the rounds of the foreign press:

"West Virginia, it is said, is overrun by strolling gypsies, and much interest has been excited by the death of a beautiful child about 10 years old, whom some good woman bought from the band for a few dollars, as she was evidently stolen, meaning to find and restore her, if possible, to her home and friends."

This only lacks a Parkersburg date.

The order requiring justices of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania to wear gowns is exciting considerable unfavorable comment. It does seem to be a step backward. How can a gown that makes an old man look like an old woman add any dignity to a judge? The only argument in favor of such a practice in this age is that it is the custom, and in this case it is not the custom.

Mr. Swanwick, in the last issue of the Bulletin of the Iron and Steel Association, has the following to say about the outlook for the new year:

"The Presidential succession and the tariff question have both been seen to the favorability to American industries, the crops of the year have been good, money is abundant and the people are generally employed and enjoying in peace and plenty the holiday season. The iron, in the meantime, the untimely railroad problem, which involves the demand for steel rails, pig iron and other iron and steel products. Will the building of new railroads be more active in 1889 than in 1888? Will the old roads be able to restore former rates? If these questions can be answered in the affirmative, the new year will be one of general prosperity for iron and steel manufacturers and for the country at large. The railroad problem is the key to the situation."

An Opinion of Prohibition in Kansas.

Testimony which is entitled to weight as to the workings of prohibition in Kansas is furnished in a report just made by the Stockholders' Committee of the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, who treat the subject as "a matter of financial interest and otherwise to our stockholders," and with "no motive other than to apply the deductions obtained therefrom to the value of your Kansas investments." The Committee, all of whom are residents of Boston, is the first presumably unprejudiced authority which has taken a view of practical prohibition favorable to its workings, and its expression therefore naturally attracts general attention. The members give such facts as these upon the authority of the Attorney General (General Ames): In Leavenworth County the saloons were closed in March, 1887, and commitments to the penitentiary sank from 36 in 1886 to 13 in 1887, and 5 during the first half of 1888; in Atchison county the saloons closed in 1886, and sentences to the penitentiary decreased from 23 in 1885 to 13 in 1886, 0 in 1887, and but 1 during the first half of 1888; the penitentiary has 104 less inmates than a year ago, and "the jails of the State are practically empty"; the proportion of paupers, which was one to every 750 persons in 1880, is now only 1 to 1,350. "Our observations," the committee say, "lead us to believe that this movement is a grand success in Kansas, which adds, and will continue to add, value to all the lands in the State; and they conclude by expressing the opinion that the facts cited are 'a strong argument in favor of moral as well as material progress.'"

The Deadlock in the County Board.

The County Commissioners will make another attempt this forenoon to elect a President. They will probably fail. It may be expected to take much time yet to bring the Democratic members to a state of mind where they are willing to be fair and just. Suppose a Republican member had offered the resolution presented by Mr. Gross on Monday, but reversing the offices, giving the Democrats the President and the Republicans the janitor, two assistants, librarian and clerk; what would the Democrats have said of it? And yet in an evenly divided board would that not be as fair as the same thing on the other side? The Democrats continue to make themselves ridiculous, and to needlessly obstruct and injure the public business affairs. They must be held to a strict account thereof, now and hereafter.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.

An Ohio young lady's name is "Emancipation Proclamation." Her friends call her "Prockie."

The Home Magazine is the name of a new monthly edited by Mrs. John A. Logan in Washington.

Max O'Reilly's volume of "Impressions of American Society" will be issued in Paris during the latter part of January.

A man who died at Burlington, N. H., the other day left $100 to the reporter who should write the "best obituary" of him.

Rev. George C. Noyes, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Evanston, Ill., for more than twenty years past, died yesterday of pneumonia.

At Dover, Delaware, Anthony Higgins, of Wilmington, was nominated for U. S. Senator on the 4th ballot in the Republican caucus at 3 a. m. yesterday.

A pet parrot of a dutchess is the gossip of Paris. The dutchess is said to pet herself, and to affectionately stroke the fierce creature through the bars of the cage.

A California Chinaman has found a use for the bugs and beetles which are attracted and killed by the electric lights. He catches them and pickles them in brandy.

"Heap good for cold," he says.

A London special says: I have direct information from an official source that the Government has received letters from Henry M. Stanley, and that his safety is assured. These letters will soon be published, and it is generally expected that the Government will publish them.

Messrs. Laidlaw Brothers, of New York, have just published the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States in German, French and English. The idea is certainly a novel one, and the book will undoubtedly be of great service. Would it not be a good thing, since our naturalization laws are so lax, to appropriate a part of the ever increasing surplus, for the translation of the American Constitution into all the tongues of the world, and to distribute it among the immigrants at cost?

It is announced that the movement for the exclusion of foreign stock actors has been practically abandoned by its originators, and that no formal argument for it will be made before the Congressional committee. Simultaneously with this announcement comes another one, that Messrs. Booth and Barrett, whose names alone made the proposal worthy of serious consideration, were misinterpreted when they were said to be in favor of it. It is reported that they were never in sympathy with it.

A dispatch from Bloomington, Ill., says: Ex-Senator Patterson, of South Carolina, who has been sued for breach of promise of marriage by Mrs. Rose Fleming, of Philadelphia, has for some time been a prominent figure in the city. He was married to Mildred Frank at Waukesha, Wis., November 2, 1877. Mrs. Patterson is an exceedingly pretty and stylish woman. She has been spending the winter at Millinocket, Me., the friends of her husband, Mr. Patterson does not seem alarmed over the suit of Mrs. Fleming.

Private dispatches from the Hague reported that the general idea there is that King William is dying. A regency is regarded as so inevitable that a Cabinet meeting was held yesterday to discuss the question of calling it into being, and another meeting will be held to-morrow. The utmost anxiety is felt about the Luxembourg succession, which will naturally devolve upon Adolf, Duke of Nassau, but which it is suspected the King of Prussia may appropriate on the ground of the ancient claims to the Orange heirship, which the Kings of Prussia asserted in the time of the pragmatic sanction. The Duke of Nassau, who is only a few months younger than the dying King, hates and is hated in return by the Hohenzollerns.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury, as Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system of circulation through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do are tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them.

Dr. J. C. FLEMING, of Toledo, O., contains a direct remedy on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine, it is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Sold by druggists, price 75c per bottle.

Homes in the South.

The Queen & Crescent route will sell excursion tickets to Fort Payne, Atlanta, Jacksonville, Decatur, Ala., Hattiesburg, Jackson, Miss., and Andalusia, La., at one fare for round trip, on November 20, December 4 and 18, tickets good for sixty days. Now is your chance to examine the cheap farming lands of the South. No bidders, save crops and a pleasant climate. All trains leave from the Grand Central Depot, Cincinnati. For pamphlets and other information address Nell C. Kerr, Central Passenger Agent, Pittsburgh, Pa., or D. G. Edwards, selling General Passenger Agent, Queen & Crescent route, Cincinnati, Ohio.

What makes our home so happy now? Because Ma uses "Mile-End," I say.

Richard Mansfield to Take a Rest.

Richard Mansfield has strained his voice and has been ordered by Sir Morell Mackenzie to rest for a couple of weeks. This vacation he will spend at Hastings prepared for "Richard III.," which promises to be the next very interesting event in theatrical circles. Mansfield has never seen a performance of "Richard," and both in the part and the general production will follow his own ideas. His conception of the king is as fascinating gentleman in general, though imperious, ruthless and unscrupulous as kings are wont to be. The production will be scenically elaborate.

Chronic Coughs and Colics.

And all diseases of the Throat and Lungs can be cured by the use of Scott's Emulsion, as it contains the healing virtues of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites in its fullest form. Is a beautiful creamy Emulsion, palatable, milk, easily digested, and can be taken by the most delicate. Please read: "I consider Scott's Emulsion the remedy par-excellence in Tuberculous and Strumous Affections, to say nothing of ordinary colds and the troubles of V. H. S. C. O'NEILL, M. D., Manchester, O. W. W. F.

Inauguration Fun.

Old Wheelers—"Yes, sir, I'm going to Washington next March. I've been at every inauguration for the last forty years."

Bystander—"Which did you enjoy the most?"

"Well, I enjoyed Hayes's inauguration the most. That time I had a bet on a billiard table, and got near enough a grand stand to see the tops of the hats."

The Women Praise It, B. H. B.

The suffering of women certainly awakens the sympathy of every true philanthropist. Their lot is a hard one, and they need all the help they can get. It is a pity that so many of them are so poorly provided for. It is a pity that so many of them are so poorly provided for.

A. L. Cassidy, Kansas, writes: "Three bottles of H. B. H. cured my wife of 'fluoritis.' She was suffering from it for several months, and had been told by the doctor that she would never get well. I have never used anything to equal H. B. H."

Mrs. C. H. Gay, Rocky Mount, N. C., writes: "Not a day for fifteen years was I free from headache. H. B. H. cured me of it. I feel like another person."

James W. Laidlaw, Haverhill, Mass., writes: "My wife is a sufferer from rheumatism, and I have used H. B. H. for several months. It has cured her of it. I feel like another person."

Mrs. J. H. Richardson, Clarkston, Ark., writes: "My wife suffered from rheumatism and neuralgia for several months. I have used H. B. H. for several months. It has cured her of it. I feel like another person."
